- E-M-HAttention Students: We have a few important announcements regarding the Media Center and Study Hall before, during and after school.
- Students, please be advised that media center computers before, during and after school are for academic purposes only. Gaming uses bandwidth and interferes with necessary academic activities. You are welcome to use your own devices during your lunch time or before and after school.
- Students please be aware, we have provided for supervision after school in the Student Union, Media, and Green (outside area). Students remaining on campus after their last scheduled class may ONLY be in a club or school activity, Media, Green, or in Student Union. All students remaining on campus after their scheduled day must sign in and out either in the Media or the Student Union. If you remain on campus, please adhere to these guidelines.
- E-M-HIn honor of disability history and awareness month. Can you guess who is being described? Perhaps the world’s most accomplished astrophysicist, whose theories draw upon both relativity theory and quantum mechanics, much of his work has been done since he was diagnosed with Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis, also called Lou Gehrig’s disease. The answer is Stephen Hawking.
- E-M-HThe elementary side of the student union will be closed for breakfast tomorrow, Tuesday, October 7th. Please proceed to the high school side to purchase your breakfast items.
