- E-M-HAttention Students: We have a few important announcements regarding the Media Center and Study Hall before, during and after school.
- Students, please be advised that media center computers before, during and after school are for academic purposes only. Gaming uses bandwidth and interferes with necessary academic activities. You are welcome to use your own devices during your lunch time or before and after school.
- Students please be aware, we have provided for supervision after school in the Student Union, Media, and Green (outside area). Students remaining on campus after their last scheduled class may ONLY be in a club or school activity, Media, Green, or in Student Union. All students remaining on campus after their scheduled day must sign in and out either in the Media or the Student Union. If you remain on campus, please adhere to these guidelines.
- E-M-HPlease turn in your BoxTops to the bin in guidance as soon as possible.
- E-M-HIn honor of disability history and awareness month. Can you guess who is being described? The wife of America’s 32nd president was a tireless social reformer and activist with what we now call attention deficit disorder. The answer is Eleanor Roosevelt.
- E-M-HThe elementary side of the student union will be closed for breakfast on Tuesday, October 7th. Please proceed to the high school side to purchase your breakfast items.
- EAttention 4th and 5th grade students interested in the ARTS, drawing, painting, creating with clay! The ARTS club meets every Tuesday from 12:30 – 1:00 p.m. in room #262. Stop by to see Mrs. Gould-Olson to sign up. First meeting is Tuesday, October 7th.
- ECongratulations Proud Pythons, please meet with Dr. Covert in the student union following these announcements for a celebration.
- M7th and 8th Grade Boys and Girls: Basketball intramurals will start next Monday and Wednesday at 7:30 a.m. Students must have parent permission to play.
- MAny 7th grader who needs a locker or shares a locker and wishes to rent a new locker needs to bring $1.00 to the front office to rent a locker of your own. This means you will no longer need to share a locker. This is on a fist come first serve basis.
